

Supplemental Figure 1. Pearson's Correlations among the observed levels of NK cell number and frequency before infection, CRP, LDH, ferritin, absolute monocyte and lymphocyte count at time of infection were computed. Blue boxes indicate a positive correlation and brown boxes indicate a negative correlation. All correlations were significant with $p < 0.01$.