This is to confirm that Maria Fernanda Ortiz Dominguez & Yasser Bhatti approached me in the process of researching and drafting the article titled "From Waste to Luxury Fashion at Elvis & Kresse: A Business Model for Sustainable and Social Innovation in the Circular Economy". As co-founder of Elvis & Kresse, I have reviewed the article, offered feedback, and confirm the article provides a factual picture of my company without infringing on any confidential or copyrighted information. I consent for it to be published in Sustainability, EISSN 2071-1050, by MDPI.
