

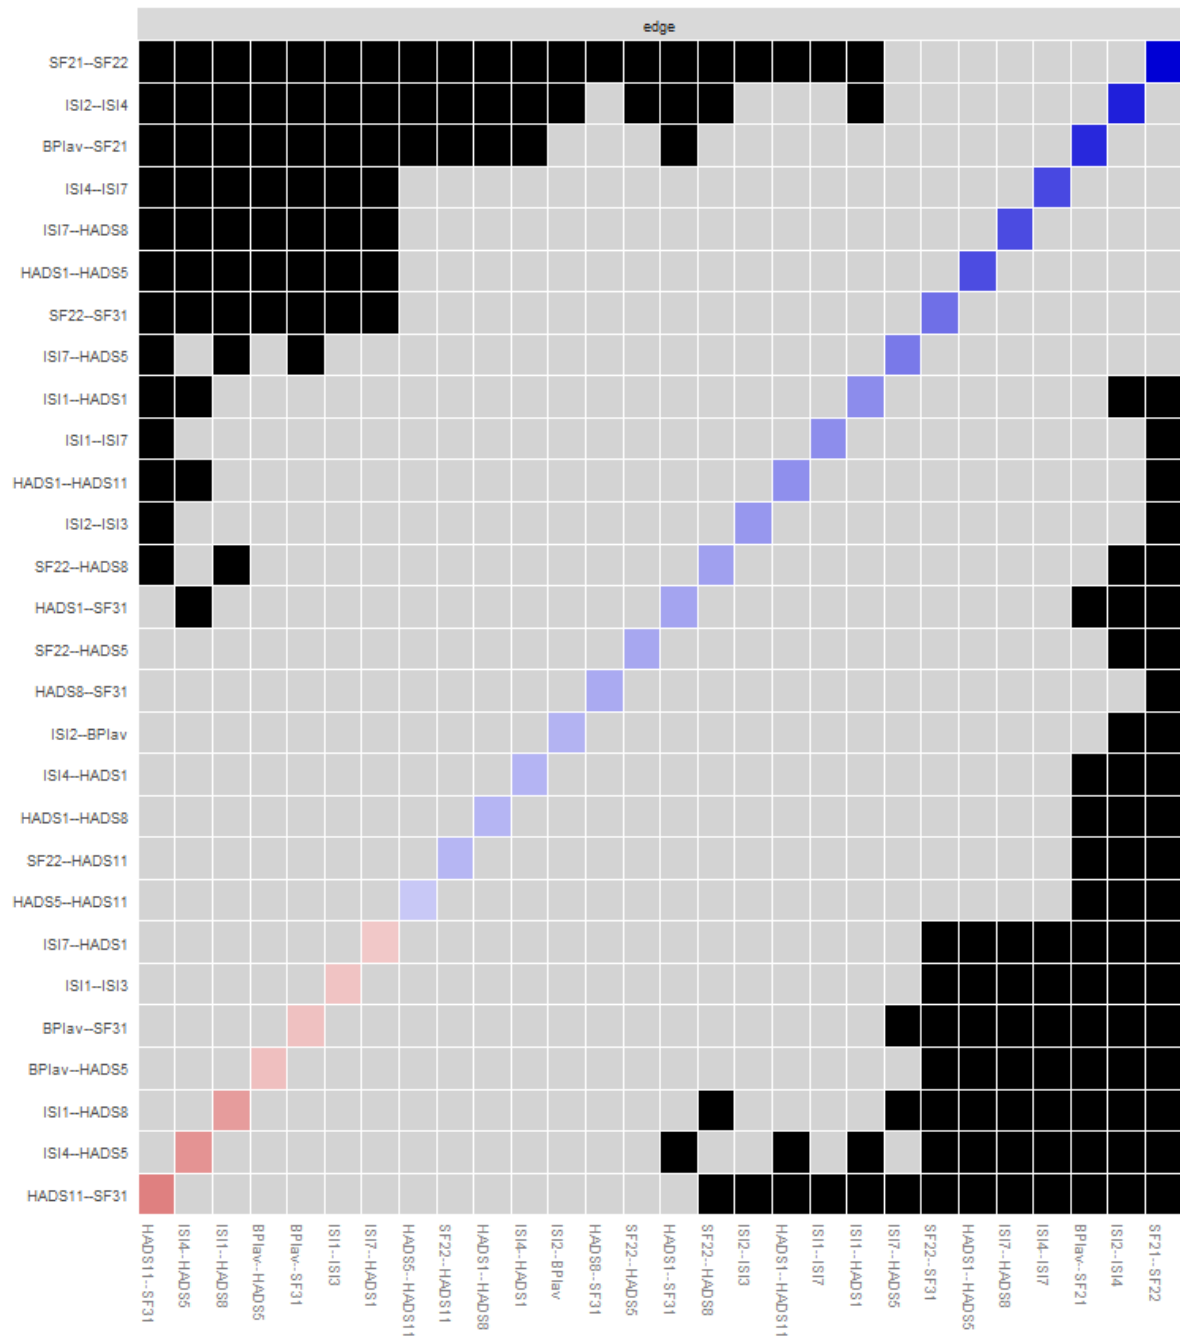

Figure S3

Edge-weights difference test: GGM

Note. The bootstrapped difference tests ($\alpha = 0.05$) between edge-weights in the estimated network. Only edge-weights that were non-zero are included. Gray boxes point out edges that do not differ significantly from each other. Black boxes point out edges that do differ significantly from each other. The colored boxes represent the color of the edge as presented in the regularized partial correlation network.