University, Tel Aviv-Yafo, Israel

Deadline for manuscript
submissions:

31 July 2024

Message from the Guest Editor

The purpose of this Special Issue is threefold. First, we will review various methods for urinalysis, including the more recently introduced automated technology. Second, we will discuss the clinical utility and disutility of various findings. Finally, we will discuss indications for testing. We will limit our discussion to testing, abnormal findings, and diseases in the elderly.
