Message from the Guest Editors

Dear Colleagues,

This special issue of Education Sciences welcomes contributions from scholars in the field of education and training in the areas of translation. In particular, we welcome contributions which focus on the technological and other present-day challenges that are poised to change the profession of translators significantly. It is the role of the academia to prepare its graduates to an efficient integration into the professional world.

We sincerely hope to receive interesting contributions from you.

Please submit an abstract before 1 February 2018.

Please do not hesitate to contact us if you have any questions.

We are looking forward to hearing from you.

Prof. Dr. Hendrik J. Kockaert

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

From its first issue in 2011, Education Sciences (ISSN 2227-7102) has grown as a scholarly international open access journal. Its aim remains to publish extended full-length research papers that have the scope to substantively address current issues in education. As a member of the Committee on Publication Ethics (COPE), our goal has been to disseminate high quality research. Our publisher, MDPI, takes the responsibility to enforce a rigorous double-blind peer-review together with strict ethical policies and standards to ensure to add high quality scientific works to the field of scholarly publication.
