As Editor-in-Chief of the open access journal, Galaxies (ISSN 2075-4434: <http://www.mdpi.com/journal/galaxies>), I am pleased to announce the launch of the 2018 Galaxies Travel Awards for two young investigators, one in cosmology and the other in galaxies physics. The awards consist of 800 Swiss Francs each.

We are currently accepting nominations and applications. The candidates could be Ph.D. students, postdoctoral fellows, or lecturers in cosmology or galaxies physics, who will participate in an international conference in 2018. Eligible candidates should submit the following materials to the Galaxies Editorial Office (galaxies@mdpi.com) with the subject “Application for the 2018 Galaxies Young Investigator Travel Awards—Name” before 20 November 2017:

2018 TRAVEL AWARDS FOR YOUNG INVESTIGATORS

Candidates' Requirements:

1. Outline of past and current work (500 words).
2. CV, including a complete list of publications, impact factors and citations.
3. The conference (anytime in 2018) the candidate is planning to attend and the research results to be presented.
4. A letter of recommendation from a senior researcher.

The winners will be announced on the Galaxies website at the end of 2017. We would appreciate the awardees acknowledging the support of the journal Galaxies in their presentations.

I would be happy if you could share this information with your colleagues.

I look forward to receiving your nomination and application!
