Deadline for manuscript submissions: closed (16 July 2020) Dear Colleagues

This Special Issue of Genealogy invites essays on the topic, "Genealogy and Multiracial Family Histories." Manuscripts may focus on families with spouses of different designated racial groups who may also have children who are understood to be multiracial as well as multigenerational mixed-race families that celebrate the multiraciality in their genealogy. The common denominator would be to explore how families with multiracial (or mixed-race) members (whether parents, siblings, or both/all) narrate their family histories (with a special focus on how they frame/reframe the salience of race and ethnicity in the process). The editorial team hopes to provide a wide spectrum with regard to discipline or sub-discipline and invites contributions that strengthen and broaden the framework for genealogy studies. ### Message from the Editorial Board

Genealogy is a scholarly journal that provides a venue for academic. cutting-edge contributions to the interdisciplinary field of genealogy studies. We welcome contributions that examine genealogies of family lineage, genealogical considerations and methods in use examining other historical processes (including migration histories, personal, social, and national identities, and social institutions) or study the construction of genealogical narratives. The journal is also interested in biographical studies and their contribution to the social understanding of broader and historical phenomena.

Author Benefits
