Message from the Guest Editor

Given the importance of diabetes, the International Journal of Environmental Research and Public Health (IJERPH) is launching a Special Issue entitled “New advances in diabetes” with the aim of gathering accurate and up-to-date scientific information on all aspects of diabetes.

We are pleased to invite you and your co-workers to submit original research articles and review articles aimed at providing a comprehensive overview of the advances in the understanding and treatment of this disease.

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Addressing the environmental and public health challenges requires engagement and collaboration among clinicians and public health researchers. Discovery and advances in this research field play a critical role in providing a scientific basis for decision-making toward control and prevention of human diseases, especially the illnesses that are induced from environmental exposure to health hazards. IJERPH provides a forum for discussion of discoveries and knowledge in these multidisciplinary fields. Please consider publishing your research in this high quality, peer-reviewed, open access journal.

Author Benefits

Open Access: free for readers, with article processing charges (APC) paid by authors or their institutions.

High Visibility: indexed within Scopus, PubMed, MEDLINE, PMC, Embase, GEOBASE, CAPus / SciFinder, and other databases.

Journal Rank: CiteScore - Q1 (Public Health, Environmental and Occupational Health)
