Message from the Collection Editor

Dear Colleagues,

The Topical Collection entitled “Feature Papers in Molecular Pharmacology” aims to collect high-quality research articles and reviews in the field of molecular pharmacology. We encourage Editorial Board Members of this IJMS Section to submit manuscripts reporting on significant advances in molecular pharmacology research. Special emphasis will be placed on drug effects upon nucleic acids, proteins involved in nucleic acid metabolism, and interaction of nucleic acids with proteins, by using the whole plethora of molecular biology methods. Genetic and epigenetic factors determining drug effects will be accordingly dealt with.
