Dear Authors,

We are very pleased to announce the winners of the 2019 IJTPP Best Paper Award. One review and one research article were selected by the journal awards committee according to their originality and significance, as well as the citation and download rates from 2016 to 2018 (Web of Science). The award recipients will each receive a certificate and an invitation to publish a paper free of charge in IJTPP, after the normal peer-review procedure. Each paper will additionally receive a bonus of 350 CHF. The winners list is as follows:
