Message from the Guest Editors

Dear Colleagues,

We are putting together a Special Issue on the notion of the technological Singularity, the idea that computers will one day be smarter than their human creators. Articles that are both in favour of and against the Singularity are welcome, but the lead article by the Guest Editors Bob Logan and Adrianna Braga is quite critical of the notion. Here is the abstract of their paper, The Emperor of Strong AI Has no Clothes: Limits to Artificial Intelligence.

Deadline for manuscript
submissions:

closed (30 October 2018)

an Open Access Journal by MDPI
