Message from the Guest Editors

Dear Colleagues,

We are happy to announce the collaboration between the 5th International Symposium of Frontiers in Metal Oxide Cluster Science (FMOCS V, http://xxpt.clzc.nenu.edu.cn/FMOCS-V/##) and Inorganics. This Special Issue will provide selected papers from the FMOCS V conference in the field of polyoxometalate chemistry and related science associated with the general themes:

- Catalysis and energy
- Molecular electronics and nanomagnetism
- Biological applications
- Synthesis and self-assembly
- Fundamentals and emergent systems.

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Inorganic chemistry remains a lynchpin of modern chemistry, not only embracing the function and reactivity of combinations of most elements of the periodic table, but also providing a footing for studies of materials, catalysts, drugs, fuels and industrial chemicals. Arguably, the role and reach of inorganics in society have never been as great as today. Adventurous research at the heart and at the extremes of inorganic chemistry is vital to further advances and Inorganics offers authors the opportunity to publish exciting new research in an open access format.

Author Benefits

Open Access: free for readers, with article processing charges (APC) paid by authors or their institutions.

High Visibility: indexed within Scopus, SCIE (Web of Science), CAPlus / SciFinder, and other databases.

Journal Rank: JCR - Q2 (Chemistry, Inorganic & Nuclear) / CiteScore - Q2 (Inorganic Chemistry)
