Message from the Guest Editor

MARTECH 2022 was the 6th Edition of the international conference that followed 11 editions of an earlier National Conference. It received a total of around 200 abstracts, from which 136 papers were finally accepted and presented, together with four keynote presentations. As in the previous editions, the proceedings were published in book format; however, there may still be scope for a Special Issue of JMSE based on this conference, as the keynote presentations were not included in the proceedings, and there was a substantial number of abstracts that were accepted but whose paper version could not be completed in time to be considered for publication in the proceedings. In addition, several papers that presented the initial results of a more extensive, ongoing study may be able to serve as the source for follow-up or expanded papers to be considered for publication in this Special Issue of the journal.

Thus, you are invited to submit papers for this Special Issue, which has the same broad coverage as the conference.
