Message from the Guest Editors

Dear Colleagues,

We are delighted to invite you to consider submitting your papers for this Special Issue, entitled "Exploring Discourse and Identity in the Diverse and Evolving Varieties of Southeast Asian Englishes". This Special Issue explores and examines the complex and fascinating topic of Southeast Asian varieties of English and their relationship to identity and discourse.

This Special Issue seeks to explore the unique representation or construction of identities and discourses that are embedded within each of these varieties of Southeast Asian English, which present opportunities for research and exploration. It investigates how English has influenced and shaped individual and collective identity, sociocultural dimensions of language use, discourse strategies and communicative practices, and the impact of cultural factors on the discourse of Southeast Asian English (Zafar, 2020; Tan, 2018)...
