Message from the Guest Editors

Dear Colleagues,

We are writing to invite you to contribute an empirical article to a special issue "Second Language Acquisition and Sociolinguistic Studies" of the journal Languages that Chelsea Escalante and I (Rebecca Pozzi) will be guest editing. This Special Issue addresses the intersection of second language acquisition and sociolinguistics across several languages and learner populations in an effort to connect researchers who study different second languages and advance the field collectively.

We request that, prior to submitting a manuscript, interested authors initially submit a proposed title and an abstract of 400-600 words summarizing their intended contribution by May 15, 2024. Please send it to the Guest Editors (rpozzi@csumb.edu and cescalane@uwyo.edu) or to the Languages editorial office (languages@mdpi.com). Abstracts will be reviewed by the Guest Editors for the purpose of ensuring that the paper is within the scope of the Special Issue. Full manuscripts will be due by March 15, 2025, and will undergo a double-blind peer-review process.

Message from the Editorial Board

Languages (ISSN 2226-471X) is now in its eighth year since its inception in 2015. It is an Open Access journal which seeks to stimulate debates on key issues in languages and linguistics. We welcome papers at the cutting edge of different fields, ranging from applied linguistics to descriptive and theoretical linguistics. Submissions may consist of research articles and critical reviews as well as proposals for Special Issues where multi-disciplinary approaches and different perspectives on current issues are explored. We invite you to consider Languages as a forum for sharing your work.
