Message from the Guest Editors

Dear Colleagues,

We are looking for papers using qualitative methods in pharmacy and health services research. This could include, but is not limited to, pharmacy education, practice or clinical pharmacy. The compilation will be a useful reference material for students and researchers engaged in pharmacy and health service research. Meta-ethnography, original research articles and interdisciplinary research will be welcomed. The deadline for submissions for this Special Issue of the journal is 30 November 2017. All articles with subject heading Qualitative Methods in Pharmacy Research Special Issue should be should not have been published previously, nor be under consideration for publication elsewhere (except conference proceedings papers). Submitted articles will be given accelerated reviews, and a decision will be forwarded to the author(s) approximately within four weeks of submission.
