Message from the Guest Editors

This Special Issue aims to gather original contributions and review articles focusing on sustainability aspects (environmental, economic and social), highlighting the role of Building Technologies both to meet decarbonisation targets and to optimise the life cycle management of material and process flows.

Possible subjects can be:

- decarbonisation related to materials/products/buildings (bio-based materials, renewable resources, etc.);
- sustainability indicators/criteria for buildings/products/construction techniques;
- whole life cycle assessment/carbon of buildings and constructions;
- circular use of resources and life cycle extension of materials/products/buildings (adaptability, reuse/remanufacturing/repurpose, product-as-a-service/building-as-a-service, etc.);
- low impact and sustainable production/construction/deconstruction techniques;
- circular organisational models/supply chain for buildings and buildings elements/products;
- digital enabling technologies to support the life cycle management of materials flows;
- technological innovations for sustainability;
