Dear colleagues,

We are pleased to announce the winners of the Travel Awards for The First International Conference on Symmetry 2017 (sciforum.net/conference/symmetry2017).

The awards are granted to Mr. Martiros Khurshudyan, PhD student at Tomsk State Pedagogical University, Russia; Mr. Masashi Yamazaki, PhD student from Kobayashi-Maskawa Institute for the Origin of Particles and the Universe, Nagoya University, Japan; and to Dr. Juliane Fonseca de Oliveira, postdoctoral researcher at University of Porto, Portugal.

2017 TRAVEL AWARDS WINNER

Mr. Martiros Khurshudyan is the author of more than 40 research articles, such as "Phase Space Analysis of Some Interacting Chaplygin Gas Models" published in 2017 in European Physical Journal C and "On the Phenomenology of an Accelerated Large-Scale Universe" published in 2016 in Symmetry. Mr. Masashi Yamazaki, PhD student, is the co-author of the paper "Relativistic Stars in de Rham-Gabadadze-Tolley Massive Gravity" published in 2016 in Physical Review D. Dr. Juliane Fonseca de Oliveira is a researcher who published a paper entitled "Hexagonal Projected Symmetries" in Acta Crystallographica in 2015. Each winner will receive 500 Euros with a certificate and a waiver of registration fees for the Symmetry 2017 conference. We congratulate them all on their valuable scientific contributions and would also like to thank all applicants for the very diverse and interesting submissions.
