Message from the Editor-in-Chief

You are invited to contribute a research article or a comprehensive review for publication (after successful peer-review processing) in Astronomy (ISSN 2674-0346). Astronomy, from cosmology to astrophysics, is a fascinating research field, with recent breakthrough achievements and a bright future in observations and in theories. The journal is targeting the scientific excellence of publications and a transparent and efficient referee procedure, leading to an excellent reputation within the scientific community of its research field.

Aims

Astronomy (ISSN 2674-0346) is an international, peer-reviewed, open access journal on observational and theoretical astronomy, astrophysics, astroparticle physics, and cosmology, as well as on all aspects of gravitational physics. It publishes regular research papers, communications and reviews. Our aim is to publish high-quality, timely, experimental and theoretical research results of high quality in a rapid and readily accessible manner.

Scope

- Observational astronomy
- Observational astrophysics
- Observational cosmology
- Astroparticle physics
- Messengers of the early universe
- Theoretical cosmology
- Gravitational waves
- Gravitation and general relativity
- Dark matter and dark energy
- Quantum gravity
- Black hole physics
- Astronomy at all frequencies (from radio to gamma-rays)
- Neutrino astronomy
- Astronomy at all scales (from extragalactic to solar)
- Planetary sciences

Author Benefits

Open Access

Unlimited and free access for readers

No Copyright Constraints

Retain copyright of your work and free use of your article

Thorough Peer-Review

Discounts on Article Processing Charges (APC)

If you belong to an institute that participates with the MDPI Institutional Open Access Program

No Space Constraints, No Extra Space or Color Charges

No restriction on the maximum length of the papers, number of figures or colors

Rapid Publication

First decisions in 16 days; acceptance to publication in 5.8 days (median values for MDPI journals in the second half of 2023)
