

DLS analysis of the NPs obtained with 1% WPC and 4.5% of H.p. oleoresin. The percentage distributions are reported by number (A), intensity (B), and volume (C).

Particles with diameter around 1400 nm in B and C are probably due to the presence of dust and not dependent on the encapsulation process.

