

Interview Guide

Describe your ordinary Internet use.

Describe situations when you have sought health-related information on the Internet.

Describe if and how you use the Internet in relation to your own health/to your diabetes.

In what way have you used the Internet for information during the COVID-19 pandemic?

How would you describe the information supply about COVID-19 on the Internet?

Tell me about your experiences of engaging with COVID-19 information on the Internet.

What benefits do you perceive with COVID-19 information on the Internet?

What problems do you perceive with COVID-19 information on the Internet?

Describe how you go about critically appraising health information in general/about COVID-19 information on the Internet.

Describe if and how you have looked for COVID-19 information in relation to type 2 diabetes.

Free-text Items of Questionnaire

Please describe your perceptions about the general information supply about COVID-19 on the Internet.

Describe your perceptions about COVID-19 related information on news websites.

If you use it, what are your perceptions about COVID-19-related content on social media?

Describe what benefits you perceive with COVID-19-related information on the Internet.

Describe what problems you perceive with COVID-19-related information on the Internet.

Describe how you are affected by COVID-19 information on the Internet.

Describe how you go about critically appraising health information/COVID-19 information on the Internet.

Describe if and how you have looked for COVID-19 information in relation to type 2 diabetes.