

Supplementary figure S4 – Read depth distribution per position of the control region and normalized read depth (divided by total number of reads) per position of the control region present per sample.