

Figure S3. Determination of the standard curve and linear relationship for Q-TRAP. The Ct-values of the standard control were plotted against log[protein] to calculate the linear equation. The Y-intercept and the slope values from the equation are used to quantify the RTA of unknown samples ($10^{[(Ct \text{ sample} - Y\text{-Int})/slope]}$).