

Figure S1. Google maps images of sampling location. (A) Location of the wine estate DeMorgenon in Stellenbosch/South Africa (scale 1:416,666,667). (B) Detailed 3D map (scale 1:3448) of the location selected for collecting grapevine leaf samples, where the area of planted "Syrah" cultivar is indicated by a red square (40,000 m²). Sampling points of "Music" and "Control" replicates are indicated by blue and yellow dots, respectively, as described in the legend on the upper left of (B).