

Figure S2 The volcano map of gene expression between groups. Horizontal coordinates indicate  $\log_2(\text{fold change})$  of genes in the breeding and non-breeding seasons; vertical coordinates indicate negative log values of P-adjust values for gene expression changes. Red points represent genes that are down-regulated during the breeding season, and blue points represent genes that are up-regulated during the breeding season.