

Figure S2. The non-membrane organelles found in the annotations of the disease-related proteins . The bars represent the degree of over-representation in each of the location categories, where green represents pProS-containing proteins, and yellow represents non-pProS proteins (see also Materials and Methods).