

Figure S3. Mean metal concentration documented in Peruvian fish-derived food/medicinal product, separated into river and ocean species. Green numbers indicate the quantity of analyses that considered a given metal, while red numbers indicate standard deviation. WHO standards aren't displayed because they are specific to the food/medicinal type.