

Figure S1. Comparative analysis of gray matter volume across the three subgroups and the control group. Statistical significance denoted as * indicates $q < 0.01$, while  signifies $q < 0.001$.

