Message from the Guest Editors

Dear colleagues,

This proposed special issue aims to advance knowledge about the prevention and coping processes at micro, meso, and macro levels to explore the antecedents and the process from multi-disciplinary and multi-method perspectives. We aim to explore conceptualizations and provide innovative empirical perspectives and advance methodological approaches that can enrich the understanding of these dimensions that account to promote workers' wellbeing, healthy work relationships and workplaces.

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Welcome to Administrative Sciences, the journal aims to advance and communicate knowledge concerning management theory and practice both in public administration and in profit organizations; it encourages submissions that build on interdisciplinary research in related fields, such as business, economics, political science, gender studies, psychology, sociology, physiology, communication theory or artificial intelligence and their implications on management, organizations and the society. Join us on a journey through the Administrative Sciences, where management merges with innovation.
