Dear colleagues,

To acknowledge the continued support of our authors, we are pleased to announce the “Antibodies 2021 Best Paper Award” for research and review articles published in Antibodies from 1 January 2019 to 31 December 2019. We hope this award will encourage the publication of other high-quality papers in the journal. The award has been granted to one review article:

2021 BEST PAPER AWARD WINNERS

Antibody Structure and Function: The Basis for Engineering Therapeutics

By Mark L. Chiu; Dennis R. Goulet; Alexey Teplyakov and Gary L. Gilliland.

Antibodies 2019, 8(4), 55; <https://doi.org/10.3390/antib8040055>

The winner (corresponding authors) will receive a certificate, 500 CHF and a chance to publish a paper free of charge in Antibodies in 2021, after the normal peer-review procedure.

We would like to take this opportunity to thank all our authors for their continued support.
