Message from the Guest Editors

Dear Colleagues,

This Special Issue delves into the multifaceted realm of dental implantology, addressing pivotal topics crucial for clinical success. It encompasses diverse areas such as the challenges and solutions associated with implants in patients with systemic pathologies, advanced surgical techniques for regenerative procedures, essential protocols for hygiene maintenance, the pivotal role of soft tissues in implant success, targeted periodontal therapies aimed at preserving implant health, precise methodologies for evaluating marginal bone loss, and an in-depth analysis of various implant connection types and their influence on both implant and prosthetic survival.

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

As the world of science becomes ever more specialized, researchers may lose themselves in the deep forest of the ever increasing number of subfields being created. This open access journal Applied Sciences has been started to link these subfields, so researchers can cut through the forest and see the surrounding, or quite distant fields and subfields to help develop his/her own research even further with the aid of this multi-dimensional network.

Author Benefits

Open Access: free for readers, with article processing charges (APC) paid by authors or their institutions.

High Visibility: indexed within Scopus, SCIE (Web of Science), Inspec, CAPlus / SciFinder, and other databases.

Journal Rank: JCR - Q1 (Engineering, Multidisciplinary) / CiteScore - Q1 (General Engineering)
