This Special Issue will serve to address a preclinical platform for developing and evaluating diagnostic as well as prognostic tools and interventions through the presentation of original research articles, reviews, and rapid short communication papers focusing on "Recent Advances in Traumatic Brain Injury Using Large Animal Models". The primary target audience for this Special Issue includes researchers employing integrated an biomechanics approach that incorporates large animal models, cell and tissue experiments, human studies, and the subsequent translation of these findings into preclinical therapeutic trials aimed at mitigating and preventing brain injuries.

Biomedicines (ISSN 2227-9059) is an open access journal devoted to all aspects of research on human health and disease, the discovery and characterization of new therapeutic targets, therapeutic strategies, and research of naturally driven biomedicines, pharmaceuticals, and biopharmaceutical products. Topics include pathogenesis mechanisms of diseases, translational medical research. biomaterial in biomedical research, natural bioactive molecules, biologics, vaccines, gene therapies, cell-based therapies, targeted specific antibodies, recombinant therapeutic proteins, nanobiotechnology driven products, targeted therapy, bioimaging, biosensors, biomarkers, and biosimilars. The journal is open for publication of studies conducted at the basic science and preclinical research levels. We invite you to consider submitting your work to Biomedicines, be it original research, review articles, or developing Special Issues of current key topics.

Author Benefits

Open Access: free for readers, with article processing charges (APC) paid by authors or their institutions.

High Visibility: indexed within Scopus, SCIE (Web of Science), PubMed, PMC, CAPlus / SciFinder, and other databases.

Journal Rank: JCR - Q1 (Pharmacology and Pharmacy) / CiteScore - Q2 (Medicine (miscellaneous))
