Message from the Guest Editors

Dear Colleagues,

It is a pleasure to invite you to contribute to this Special Issue dedicated to respiratory diseases; in particular, asthma and lung function in children.

The exponential increase in the prevalence of asthma and severe asthma in children is one of the reasons for which clinical activity and research studies are currently focusing on respiratory diseases and the monitoring of respiratory function in children.

The most recent challenge is SARS-CoV-2 infection and the monitoring of possible long-term consequences in children.

In this Special Issue, we aim to collect valuable updates on these topics from various experts.
