Message from the Guest Editor

Dear Colleagues,

Pulmonary hypertension is a hot issue in paediatric cardiology affecting all ages, from neonates to adolescents, and significantly impacting morbidity and mortality. Even though our knowledge and understanding of this pathology has increased in the last few years, many aspects need further clarification. Thus, there is a need for additional investigation.

This special issue of Children will act as a forum to increase understanding of this syndrome, by sharing knowledge about incompletely understood and controversial aspects.

Both original research articles and literature reviews will be considered for publication.
