

Special Issue

Recent Advance in Hair Science and Hair Care Technologies

Message from the Guest Editor

This Special Issue will be focused on all aspects of hair research for science and technology; for example, hair appearance, physical properties measurement, microstructure analysis, hair curvature, coloring, pigmentation, decoloration, hair damage and repair, and so on. We have noticed that there are many advances in recent research on hair science and hair care technologies. Based on your reputation and excellent contributions to these fields, I would like to invite you to contribute either an original research or a review article within the focused area of this issue.
