Message from the Guest Editors

Dear Colleagues,

Graphene and other 2D materials are promising for several applications, including flexible nanoelectronics, sensors, and photodetectors, due to their unique properties.

The scope of this Special Issue ranges from the synthesis and modification of 2D materials to properties and practical applications. This issue seeks to publish recent advances in the field of 2D materials, including graphene, graphene oxide, 2D chalcogenides, 2D oxides, 2D perovskites, silicene, germanene, borophene, phosphorene, and others. Both experimental and theoretical articles will be published in this Special Issue.

This Special Issue offers the opportunity for researchers in this area to publish their recent results in full open access.

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Welcome to Crystals, the journal dedicated to the fascinating world of crystallographic research! Crystals are more than mere decorative elements; they hold the key to understanding the fundamental structure of matter. Our mission is to explore the crucial significance of this research across various fields. From medicine to technology, chemistry to geology, crystals play a vital role. Their structure provides insights into new advanced materials, innovative drugs, and groundbreaking technologies. Through Crystals, we delve into the microscopic world to discover solutions that will shape the future. Join us on a journey through the Crystals, where science merges with beauty and innovation.

Author Benefits

Open Access: free for readers, with article processing charges \(APC\) paid by authors or their institutions.

High Visibility: indexed within Scopus, SCIE \(Web of Science\), Inspec, CAPus / SciFinder, and other databases.

Journal Rank: JCR - Q2 (Crystallography) / CiteScore - Q2 (Condensed Matter Physics)
