Message from the Guest Editors

Dear Colleagues,

This Special Issue of “Crystals” is expected to provide an excellent platform to report results that highlight the synthesis and crystal structures of coordination compounds. Furthermore, Hirshfeld surface analysis has become a widely used method, which is exploring intermolecular interactions within a crystal structure in a remarkable way.

As Guest Editor, I invite scientists from various fields to submit articles which discuss the crystal chemistry of coordination chemistry. This includes examples of synthesis and experimentally determined crystal structures. The new approaches towards the synthesis of coordination complexes are particularly encouraged.

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Welcome to Crystals, the journal dedicated to the fascinating world of crystallographic research! Crystals are more than mere decorative elements; they hold the key to understanding the fundamental structure of matter. Our mission is to explore the crucial significance of this research across various fields. From medicine to technology, chemistry to geology, crystals play a vital role. Their structure provides insights into new advanced materials, innovative drugs, and groundbreaking technologies. Through Crystals, we delve into the microscopic world to discover solutions that will shape the future. Join us on a journey through the Crystals, where science merges with beauty and innovation.

Author Benefits

Open Access: free for readers, with article processing charges \(APC\) paid by authors or their institutions.

High Visibility: indexed within Scopus, SCIE \(Web of Science\), Inspec, CAPlus / SciFinder, and other databases.

Journal Rank: JCR - Q2 (Crystallography) / CiteScore - Q2 (Condensed Matter Physics)
