Message from the Guest Editors

The goal of this Special Issue on “Ectoparasitic Arthropod Bites and Clinics” is to document clinical symptoms associated with the biting of medically important ectoparasitic arthropods, including mosquitoes, lice, ticks, bed bugs, etc. Within the framework of clinical history and entomo-epidemiological information, it is encouraged to present the tentative discriminative key(s) that can be helpful for practicing physicians in identifying ectoparasite arthropods biting humans and delivering treatment for the associated clinical disorders.
