Message from the Guest Editor

Wearable electronic devices as a topic in this Special Issue have attracted extensive attention owing to their tremendous potential in Internet-of-Things, human-machine interfaces, and even healthcare applications. In this Special Issue, we will cover various approaches to flexible and stretchable materials-based wearable electronic devices. We invite researchers who are working on deformable electronics, ranging from stretchable material synthesis and its device fabrication to process and system integration, to submit their high-quality manuscript for publication in this Special Issue.

Keywords

- stretchable electronics
- stretchable optoelectronics
- stretchable energy storage device
- bio-integrated electronic system
- wireless communication
- human-machine interface
- transparent electronics

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Electronics is a multidisciplinary journal designed to appeal to a diverse audience of research scientists, practitioners, and developers in academia and industry. The journal is devoted to fast publication of latest technological breakthroughs, cutting-edge developments, and timely reviews of current and emerging technologies related to the broad field of electronics. Experimental and theoretical results are published as regular peer-reviewed articles or as articles within Special Issues guest-edited by leading experts in selected topics of interest.

Author Benefits

Open Access: free for readers, with article processing charges (APC) paid by authors or their institutions.

High Visibility: indexed within Scopus, SCIE (Web of Science), CAPlus / SciFinder, Inspec, Ei Compendex and other databases.

Journal Rank: JCR - Q2 (Physics, Applied) / CiteScore - Q2 (Control and Systems Engineering)
