Message from the Guest Editor

Dear Colleagues,

The Special Issue “Global market for crude oil” proposed by the international journal Energies (SSCI and SCIE journal) addresses a wide spectrum of issues related to the challenges associated with the current reshaping of the world market. Suitable topics for papers encompass analysis of global energy strategy designed to deal with the demand and supply sides changes; geopolitical influences, implementation of national determined contributions in the context of the Paris Agreement; Silk Road developments and new oil routes; new oil field discovery impact on global oil prices; etc. The Special Issue is open to other topics and new approaches to analyse the global crude oil market. Papers selected for this Special Issue will be subject to a rigorous peer review procedure with the aim of rapid and wide dissemination of research results, developments, and applications.

I am thus inviting you to submit your original work to this Special Issue. I look forward to receiving your outstanding research.

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Energies is an international, open access journal in energy engineering and research. The journal publishes original papers, review articles, technical notes, and letters. Authors are encouraged to submit manuscripts which bridge the gaps between research, development and implementation. The journal provides a forum for information on research, innovation, and demonstration in the areas of energy conversion and conservation, the optimal use of energy resources, optimization of energy processes, mitigation of environmental pollutants, and sustainable energy systems.

Author Benefits

Open Access: free for readers, with article processing charges (APC) paid by authors or their institutions.

High Visibility: indexed within Scopus, SCIE (Web of Science), Ei Compendex, RePEc, Inspec, CAPlus / SciFinder, and other databases.

Journal Rank: CiteScore - Q1 (Control and Optimization)
