Message from the Guest Editor

We are pleased to announce a Special Issue of the journal Energies on the topic of Turbulence and Fluid Mechanics. We invite submissions related to experimental, numerical, and theoretical studies.

Although issues related to turbulence and fluid mechanics have been extensively studied for a very long time and many answers have been found, many problems are still open, and a number of new interesting issues are constantly emerging.

The current Special Issue welcomes papers related to turbulence, vortex structures, and vortex dynamics, scientific, and engineering problems where turbulence is of main importance, including multiphase flows and general fluid mechanics.

The purpose of this Special Issue is to collect a number of multidisciplinary problems linked by turbulence and fluid mechanics. We believe it would be very helpful for the community to find a new common ground for possible collaboration.

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Energies is an international, open access journal in energy engineering and research. The journal publishes original papers, review articles, technical notes, and letters. Authors are encouraged to submit manuscripts which bridge the gaps between research, development and implementation. The journal provides a forum for information on research, innovation, and demonstration in the areas of energy conversion and conservation, the optimal use of energy resources, optimization of energy processes, mitigation of environmental pollutants, and sustainable energy systems.

Author Benefits

Open Access: free for readers, with article processing charges (APC) paid by authors or their institutions.

High Visibility: indexed within Scopus, SCIE (Web of Science), Ei Compendex, RePEc, Inspec, CAPlus / SciFinder, and other databases.

Journal Rank: CiteScore - Q1 (Control and Optimization)
