Message from the Guest Editors

We kindly invite you to contribute to the Special Issue entitled “Functional Food and Bioactive Food Components”, which aims to provide comprehensive information on bioactive food components and their biological mechanisms from recent research on developing functional foods. We encourage the submission of original research articles and review articles related to the purification, characterization, and identification of bioactive food components with in vitro and in vivo experiments as well as clinical studies describing their biological mechanisms. Moreover, efficacy studies on functional food extracts with identified major bioactive compounds and studies on the enhancing bioactivities of food components can be submitted to this Special Issue.
