Message from the Guest Editors

The aim of this Special Issue of Forests is to comprehensively explore the multitude of impacts (both known and potential) that insects and pathogens have on forest ecosystems. The scope of the reports can include any aspect of how insects and pathogens change forest ecosystems, from how they can influence biological and chemical processes to how they can modify community membership and structure.

We are especially interested in novel, cutting-edge studies that document the impacts of insects and/or pathogens on forest systems. We are also interested in comprehensive reviews that provide new insights on the influence of forest insects and pathogens.

Message from the Editorial Board

Forests (ISSN 1999-4907) is an international and cross-disciplinary, scholarly forestry journal. The distinguished editorial board and refereeing process ensures the highest degree of scientific rigor and review of all published articles. Original research articles and timely reviews are released online, with unlimited free access.

Our goal is to have Forests be recognized as one of the foremost publication outlets for high quality, leading edge research in this broad and diverse field. We therefore invite you to be one of our authors, and in doing so share your important research findings with the global forestry community.

Author Benefits

Open Access: free for readers, with article processing charges (APC) paid by authors or their institutions.

High Visibility: indexed within Scopus, SCIE (Web of Science), Ei Compendex, GEOBASE, PubAg, AGRIS, PaperChem, and other databases.

Journal Rank: JCR - Q1 (Forestry) / CiteScore - Q1 (Forestry)
