Message from the Guest Editor

We invite you to submit high-quality research manuscripts for the Special Issue of the International Journal of Environmental Research and Public Health, titled “Linking the Condition of Ecosystem Services with Public Health”.

Topics of interest for this Special Issue include:

- Ecosystem services and public health frameworks (such as “One Health” or “Planetary Health”);
- Case studies to scaled analyses demonstrating the relationship between ecosystem services and public health;
- Relevant policy analysis; and
- Innovations and methodological improvements linking the condition of ecosystem services to public health.

Please join me in this important effort to improve research on our way to a healthier planet and healthier society.

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

Addressing the environmental and public health challenges requires engagement and collaboration among clinicians and public health researchers. Discovery and advances in this research field play a critical role in providing a scientific basis for decision-making toward control and prevention of human diseases, especially the illnesses that are induced from environmental exposure to health hazards. IJERPH provides a forum for discussion of discoveries and knowledge in these multidisciplinary fields. Please consider publishing your research in this high quality, peer-reviewed, open access journal.

Author Benefits

Open Access: free for readers, with article processing charges (APC) paid by authors or their institutions.

High Visibility: indexed within Scopus, PubMed, MEDLINE, PMC, Embase, GEOBASE, CAPus / SciFinder, and other databases.

Journal Rank: CiteScore - Q1 (Public Health, Environmental and Occupational Health)
