

International Journal of Molecular Sciences

Dear Colleagues,

On behalf of the Editor-in-Chief, Prof. Dr. Maurizio Battino, we are pleased to announce that the International Journal of Molecular Sciences is opening an award for the 2022 Best Graphic Abstract. We encourage authors to prepare a graphic abstract with their manuscript submission to IJMS. A good graphical abstract should represent the topic of the article in an attention-grabbing way, report important research results or innovative methods and present impressive images. Voting will be conducted by an evaluation committee composed of editorial board members of IJMS.

Three graphic abstracts from peer-reviewed papers published in 2022 will be
