Message from the Guest Editors

Dear Colleagues,

We are delighted to announce a call for submissions to a Special Issue of the International Journal of Molecular Sciences on the topic of “State-of-the-Art Macromolecules in Portugal”.

Macromolecules are an important class of materials with a relevant impact on our lives. Among them, those of biological origin are familiar in nature and include carbohydrates, nucleic acids, proteins and, lato sensu, also lipids.

This Topic Collection aims to highlight fundamental and applied aspects on advanced research on macromolecules in Portugal, in different fields including, but not limited to, biomedical, biochemistry, food chemistry, drug delivery, colloid and supramolecular chemistry, and the biorefinery and paper industry.

We encourage the submission of both original research articles and topical reviews on all aspects of macromolecules of biological origin.

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

The International Journal of Molecular Sciences (IJMS, ISSN 1422-0067) is an open access journal, which was established in 2000. The journal aims to provide a forum for scholarly research on a range of topics, including biochemistry, molecular and cell biology, molecular biophysics, molecular medicine, and all aspects of molecular research in chemistry. IJMS publishes both original research and review articles, and regularly publishes special issues to highlight advances at the cutting edge of research. We invite you to read recent articles published in IJMS and consider publishing your next paper with us.

Author Benefits

Open Access: free for readers, with article processing charges (APC) paid by authors or their institutions.

High Visibility: indexed within Scopus, SCIE (Web of Science), PubMed, PMC, MEDLINE, Embase, CAPlus / SciFinder, and other databases.

Journal Rank: JCR - Q1 (Biochemistry and Molecular Biology) / CiteScore - Q1 (Inorganic Chemistry)
