

Special Issue

Natural Bioactive Compounds to Promote Cardiovascular Health

Message from the Guest Editors

This Special Issue aims to provide a forum collection of the latest studies on Natural bioactive compounds (NBCs) and their biological activities, with a view to a possible therapeutic application for cardiovascular health, always from a molecular point of view.

Furthermore, as conventional extraction techniques of bioactive compounds may adversely affect human and environmental health, studies on their molecular mechanisms including design and use of green and sustainable extraction methods are also welcome.

About the Journal

Message from the Editor-in-Chief

The International Journal of Molecular Sciences (IJMS) is an open access journal, which was established in 2000. The journal aims to provide a forum for scholarly research on a range of topics, including biochemistry, molecular and cell biology, and molecular biophysics. IJMS publishes both original research and review articles, and regularly publishes special issues to highlight advances at the cutting edge of research. We invite you to read recent articles published in IJMS and consider publishing your next paper with us.

Author Benefits

Open Access:

free for readers, with article processing charges (APC) paid by authors or their institutions.

High Visibility:

indexed within Scopus, SCIE (Web of Science), PubMed, PMC, MEDLINE, Embase, CAPus / SciFinder, and other databases.

Journal Rank:

JCR - Q1 (Biochemistry and Molecular Biology) / CiteScore - Q1 (Organic Chemistry)
