Message from the Guest Editor

Dear Colleagues,

Musculoskeletal trauma and disorders are one of the leading causes of disability. These disorders are responsible for patient suffering and have enormous economic impact. The aim of this special collection of manuscripts is to focus on musculoskeletal trauma and disorders, and their recovery. Basic science and translational clinical research articles are welcome. We also invite articles with broad relevance to this topic as we are focused more on scientific excellence and rigor. We hope to publish articles from different facets of musculoskeletal medicine and rehabilitation.

Sincerely,

Prof. Dr. Nitin B. Jain
