

Journal of Intelligence

Dear Colleagues,

The Journal of Intelligence is organizing a 2018 Best Paper Award for junior first author submissions on a topic related to human intelligence. Junior is defined as being a graduate student or having obtained a PhD degree after October 2016.

The award consists of:

- 1000 CHF to be used for attending a conference where an intelligence related paper is presented by the junior author in the year 2019. The winner is expected to acknowledge the award in the presentation.
- A certificate signed by the award committee stating that the manuscript is an excellent contribution to the Journal of Intelligence and its first author is the winner of the best paper award.

2018 BEST PAPER AWARD FOR JUNIOR AUTHORS

All submitted manuscripts qualifying for publication will receive a certificate stating that the submitted manuscript is of a high quality. All manuscripts that qualify for publication will be published after necessary revisions are made.

The deadline for submission is 31 October 2018. Please clarify in your cover letter "with this manuscript I also apply for the best paper award".

The manuscripts will be evaluated by an Award Committee chaired by the Associate Editor Dr. Andrea Hildebrandt. The decisions will be based on the original submission, but they are conditional on the final acceptance of the manuscript for publication.

The winner will be announced in December 2018. Questions regarding the manuscript and award should be sent to jintelligence@mdpi.com and andrea.hildebrandt@uni-oldenburg.de.
