Message from the Guest Editors

Dear Colleagues,

Life originated in the sea more than three billion years ago, and has been evolving ever since. Marine invertebrates have long fascinated researchers due to their abundance, diversity, and adaptations. The purpose of this invited Special Issue is to publish the most exciting research with respect to the above subjects, provide a rapid turnaround time regarding reviewing and publishing, and disseminate the articles freely for research, teaching, and reference purposes.

High-quality papers that are directly related to various aspects, as mentioned below, are encouraged for publication. Novel techniques for studies are encouraged.

The Journal of Marine Science and Engineering (JMSE, ISSN 2077-1312) is an international peer-reviewed open access journal which provides an advanced forum for studies related to marine science and engineering. The journal aims to provide scholarly research on a range of topics, including ocean engineering, chemical oceanography, physical oceanography, marine biology and marine geosciences. We invite you to publish in our journal sharing your important research findings with the global ocean community.

Author Benefits

Open Access: free for readers, with article processing charges (APC) paid by authors or their institutions.

High Visibility: indexed with Scopus, SCIE (Web of Science), GeoRef, Inspec, AGRIS, and other databases.

Journal Rank: JCR - Q1 (Engineering, Marine) / CiteScore - Q2 (Civil and Structural Engineering)
